The Digital Landing Page

The screenshot shows the digital resources page for 'The Enjoyment of Music' (Thirteenth Edition) by Forney and Dell'Antonio. The page features a header with the W.W. Norton logo, the title 'DIGITAL RESOURCES', and a user email 'bz_prof1216@mailinator.com'. Below the header, there is a book cover for 'The Enjoyment of Music' and a 'Purchase Options' button. A red arrow labeled '1' points to a 'TRY BETA ASSIGNMENT VIEW' button. Below this, a grid of resource tiles is displayed: Ebook, Playlists, Materials of Music Tutorials, Listening Activities Powered by InQuizitive (labeled with a red '2'), Review Activities, Student Grades, and Getting Started (labeled with a red '3'). At the bottom of the grid is a 'Request Access' button for 'Instructor Resources'.

1. When logged in, click on the Try New Beta Assignment View button to load the beta assignment view in a new browser window.
  1. Note: Beta Assignment View will only be visible to you if you have a student set for this product with at least one activity published or with an assigned due date.
2. Click on a resource tile to view demo assignments or chapters and a complete list of all of the available assignments or chapters for each resource.
3. If you are new to using Norton digital resources, click on the Getting Started tile.

1. The What's Due section displays assignments that are published and/or have a future due date and have not been completed.
2. The Assignment Name column displays the name of each assignment. The assignments will automatically be displayed in order by their Due Dates. Click on the column header to sort the assignments alphabetically or click a second time to sort the assignments reverse-alphabetically.
3. The Type column displays which product type the assignment is (InQuizitive, Smartwork, Activity, ZAPS, etc.). Click on the column header to sort assignments alphabetically based on type or click a second time to sort assignments reverse-alphabetically.
4. In the student's view, the Status column displays the current status of the assignment listed in the row (Not Started, In Progress, Completed, Incomplete). Click on the column header to sort assignments in alphabetical order based on status or click a second time to sort the assignments reverse-alphabetically. Status is not relevant for instructors looking at this page.

5. The Due Date column displays the due date you have assigned for each assignment. Assignments are automatically displayed according to due date in ascending calendar order. Click on due date to sort by descending calendar order.
  6. In a student's view, the Grade column displays grades that have been earned for completed assignments, no grade (--) if the activity has not been completed and the Due Date has not passed, or a 0% if the Due Date has passed and the activity was not completed. Instructors looking at this page will not see any grade information.
  7. The Completed or Past Due section displays assignments that have been completed and for which the due date has passed.
  8. The Information Icon appears if the instructor has adjusted a student's grade after the Due Date has passed.
